The VIKING SAGA

1958

Viking spirit can't be broken
Formed in our Rowe High;
Blue and Gold we'll always cherish
Sealed by friendship's tie;

Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Praise to thee we sing;
Pride and honor, glory, love,
To thee, we'll strive to bring.

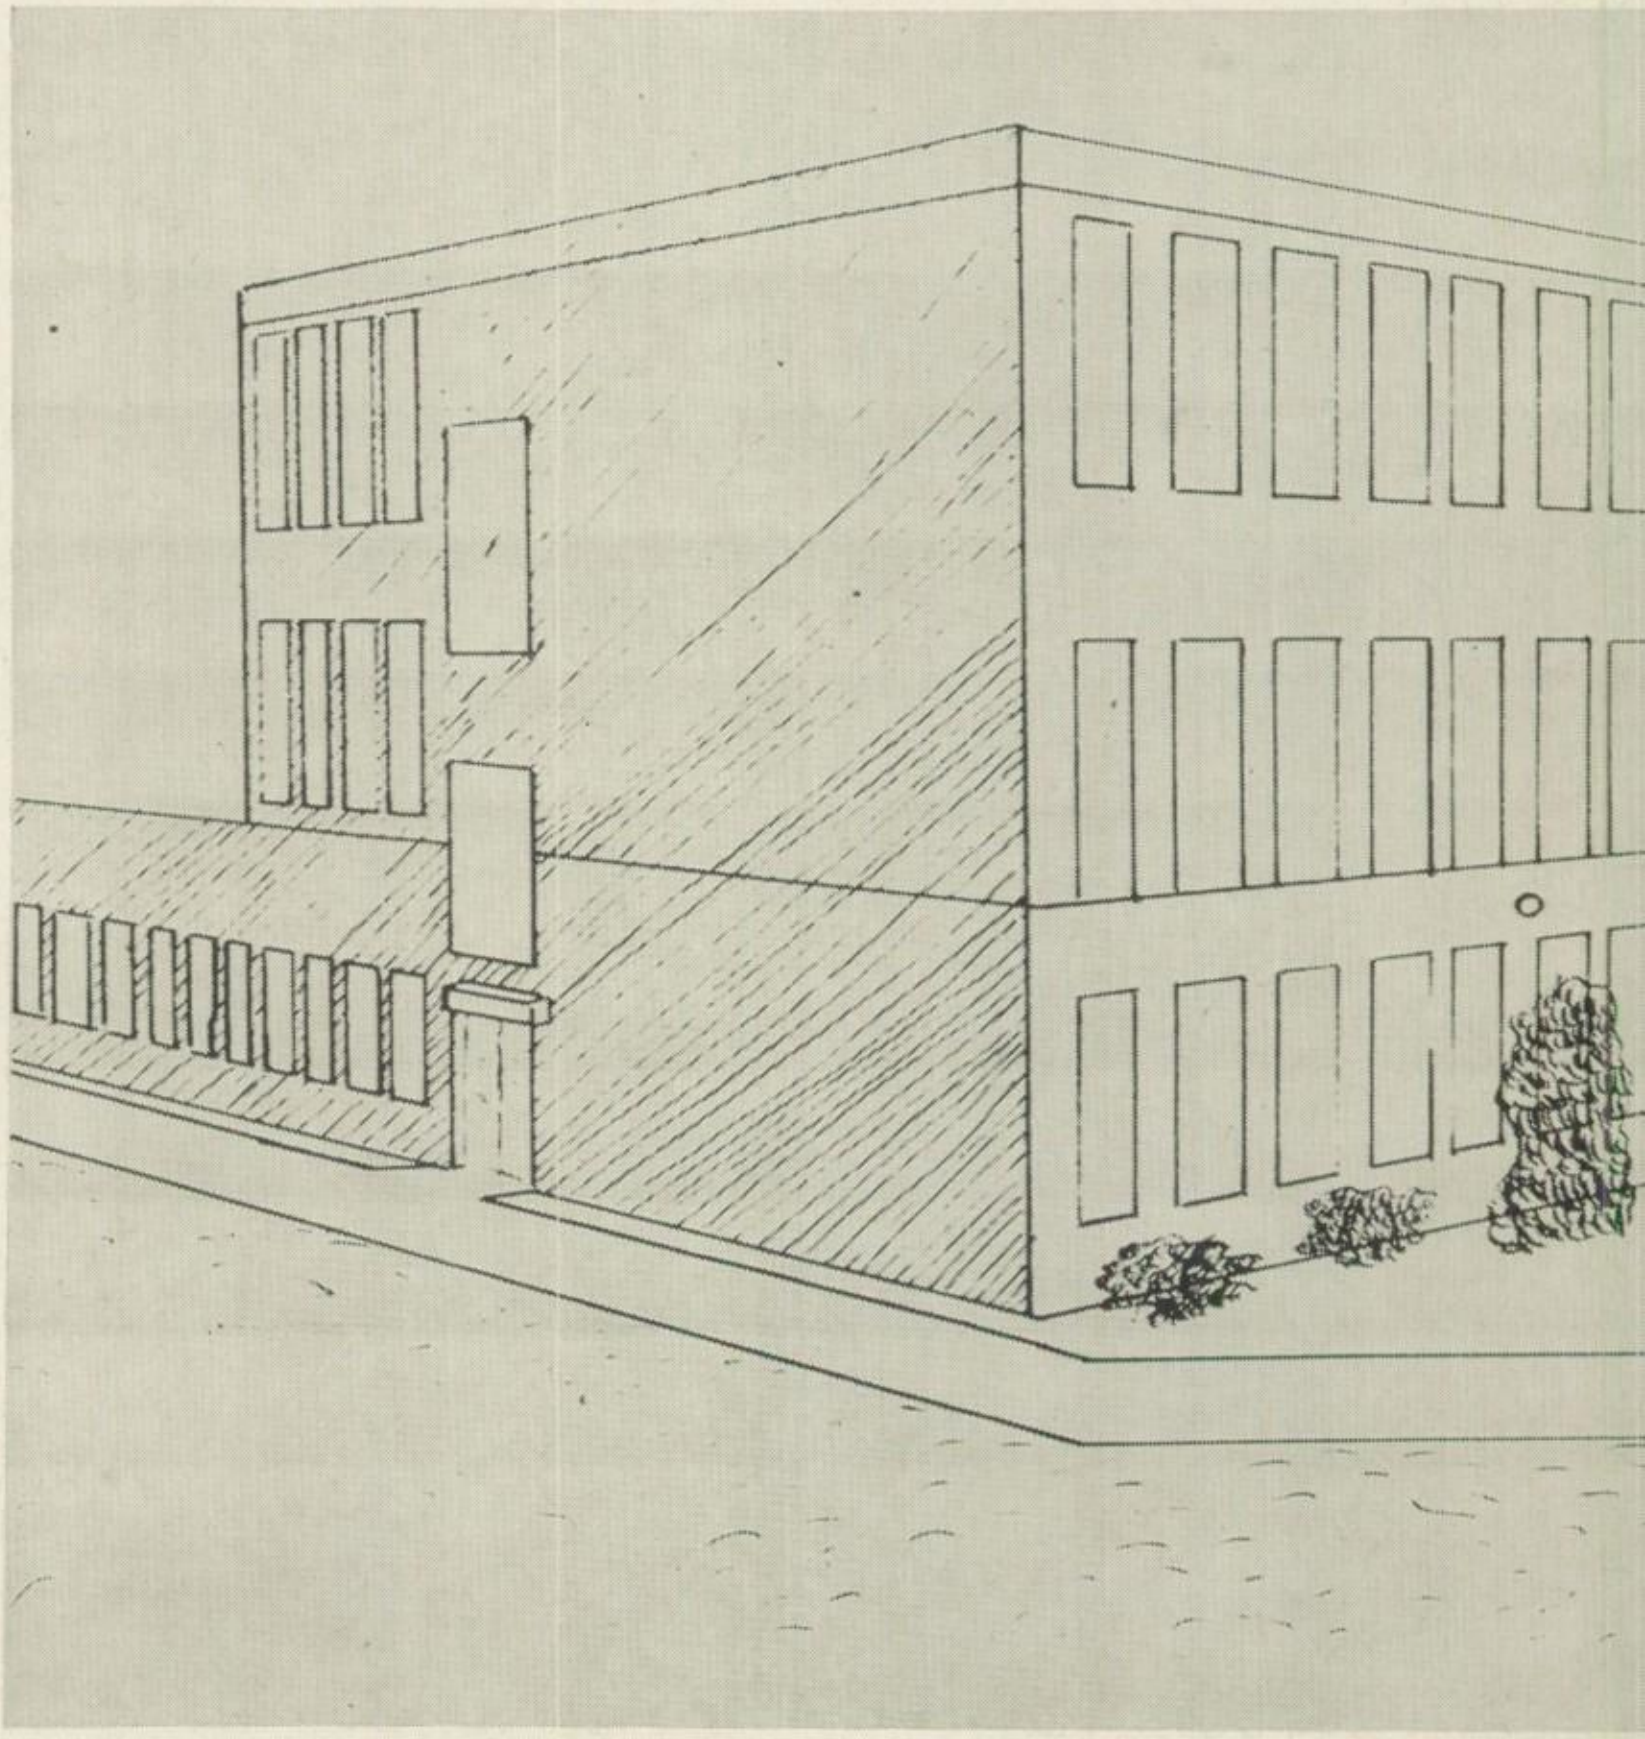
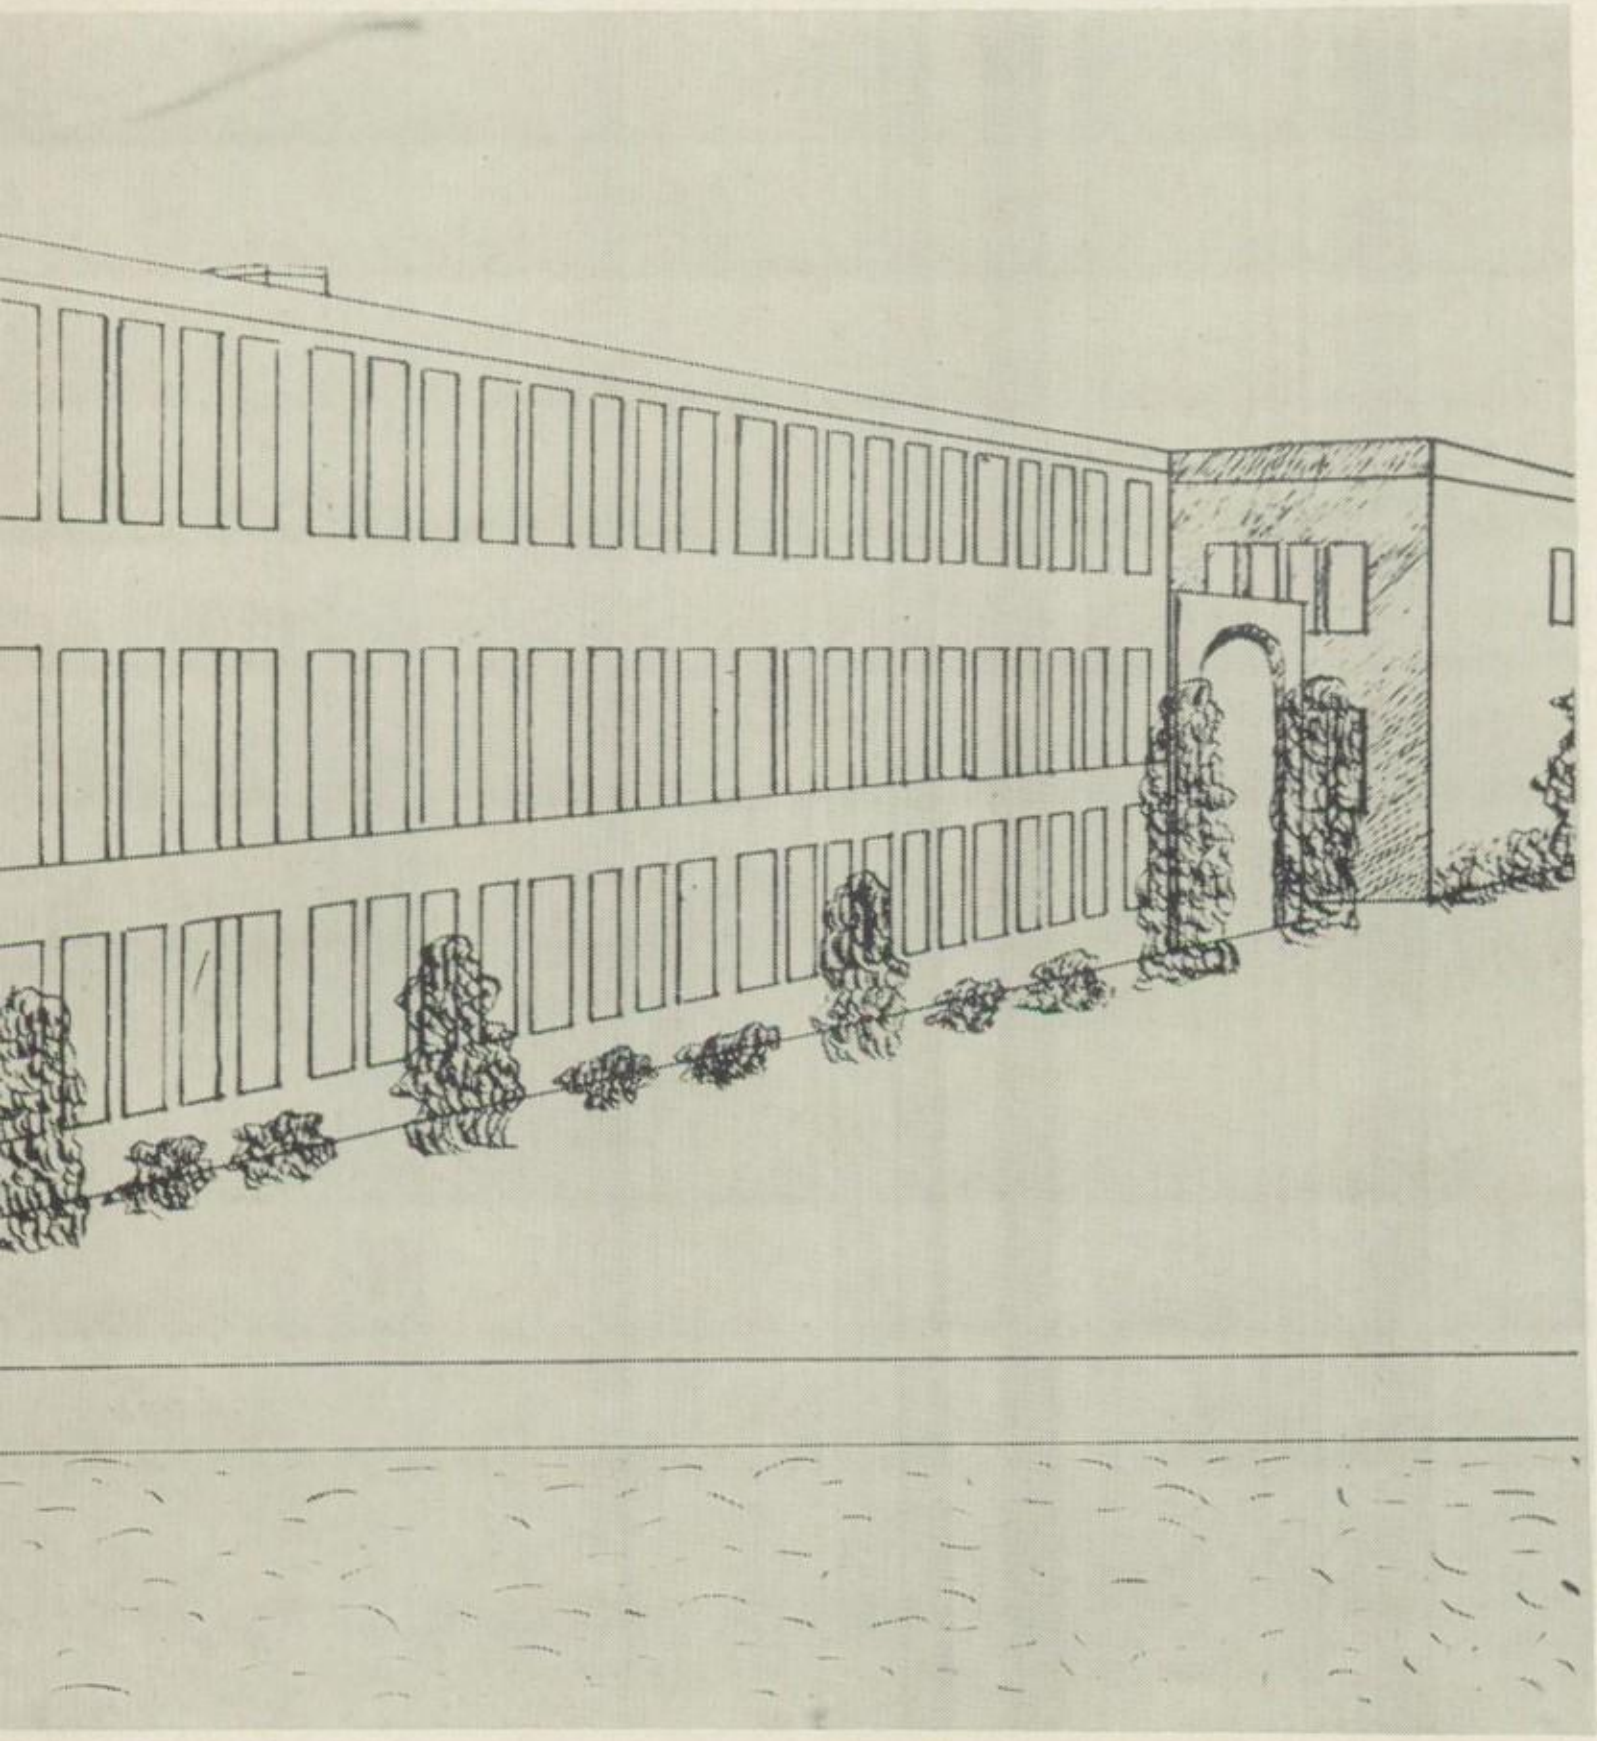
OUR



WIGWAM



The quotations were taken from

"THE SONG OF HIAWATHA"

by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

O, strangers,
Ye whose hearts are fresh and simple,
All my doors stand open for you.
I will teach you all a lesson
That shall not be soon forgotten
If you listen to my counsels.
The heart's right hand I will give you,
When you come.

We Proudly Dedicate Our Saga

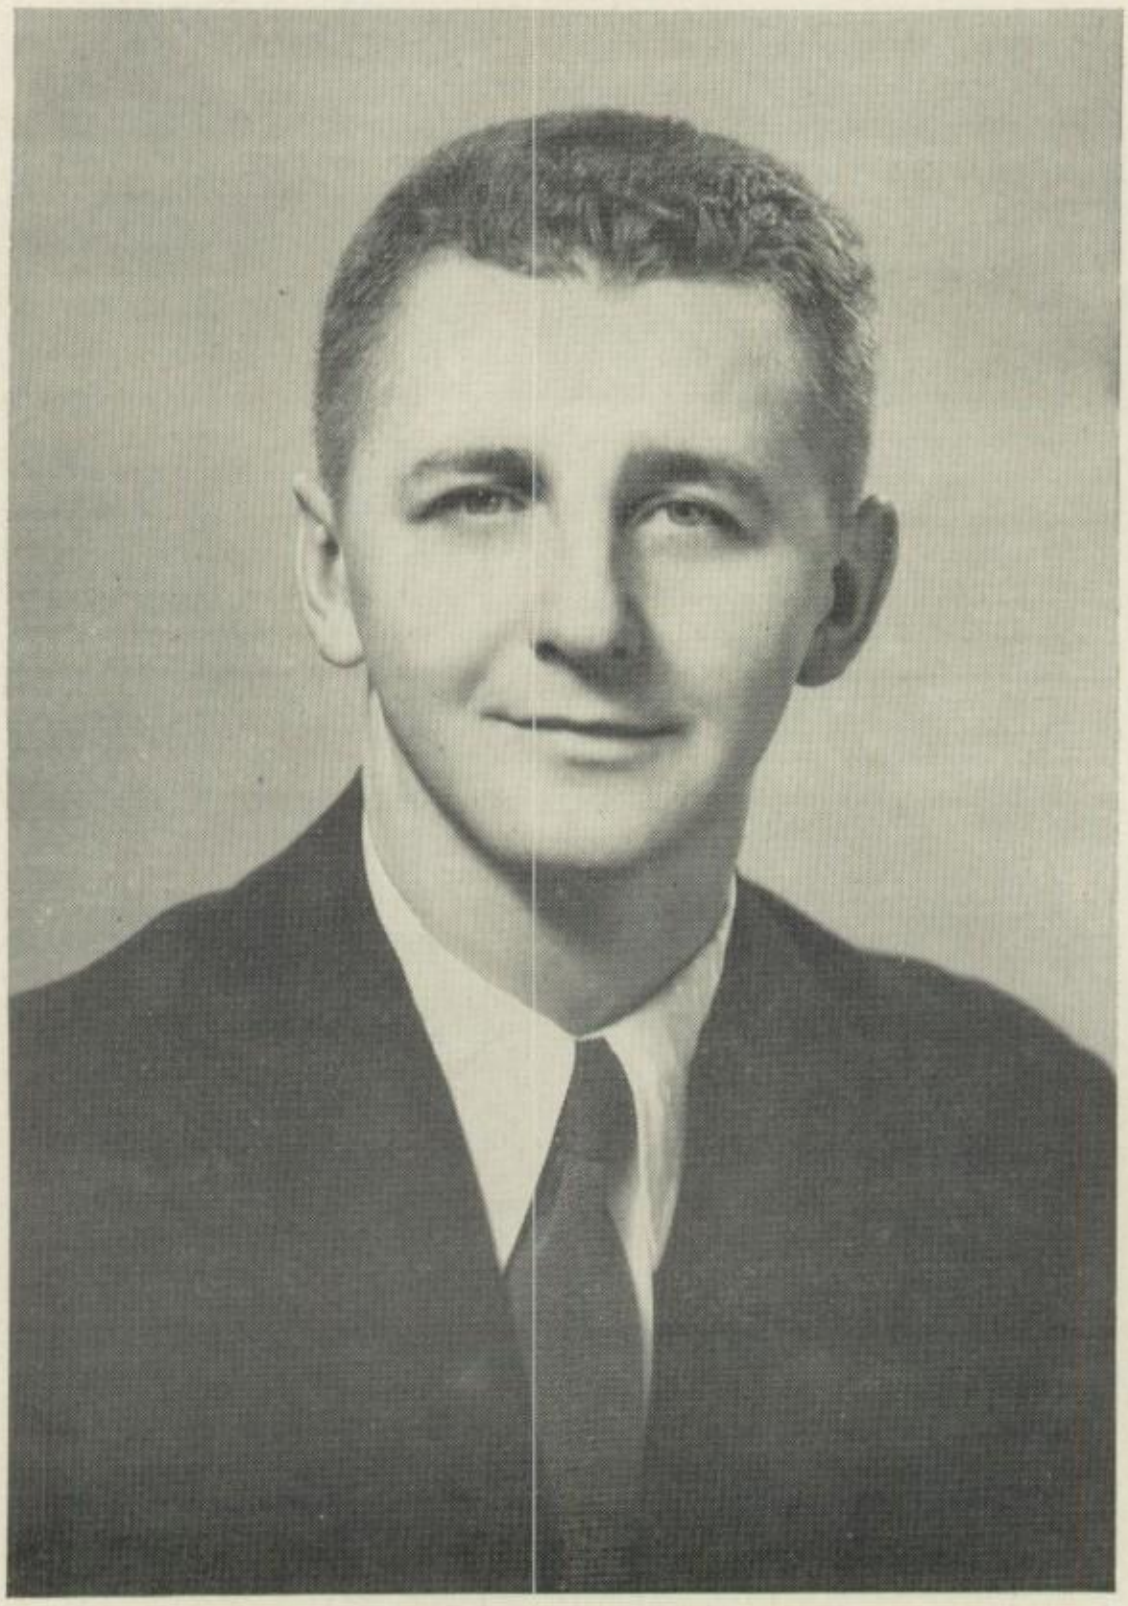
BENJAMIN JOSEPH KLEPEK



You take a bit of sunshine and you mix it with a smile and human understanding . . . . And then you add some loyalty, which mingles in so well . . . . And don't forget some sympathy and lots of human nature — Plus dignity, with which all men have the right to live . . . . Then add to these a handclasp strong and measure out some truth . . . . Now stir them all together and your task is at an end . . . . For all of these combine to make life's greatest gift—A Friend.

THE BRAVES' CHANT

With the wind in our rigging
Our noble ship tramples the billows to ride the tide;
As we, the merry crew, hold true our course to the harbor of our journey's end.
Regretfully we look back upon our twelve years
Of sailing the sea of knowledge.
We will not soon forget the friendships
We have made with teachers and fellow mates;
Nor will we forget the fair times we had together,
Nor the toilsome.
We, who may sail to the four far corners of the earth,
Will uphold the ideals of true Vikings.
May your code of vitality,
integrity,
knowledge,
ingenuity,
nobility,
grace,
and sportsmanship
ever be in our hearts.
With our past strivings well logged,
We disembark upon the uncharted shores of the future.
Dear Alma Mater,
Thou hast fostered us well;
Our gratitude to you is as large as the sea
As now we must say farewell.

THE HISTORY OF THE BRAVES

The gently caressing tropic breeze played a lullaby on the feathery tops of the stately palms. This was the last day of my winter vacation in Jamaica. Oh, what a glorious three weeks! As a climax to those sun-drenched, carefree hours I was going treasure hunting alone. The sea blue water gently kissed the shore then tripped coyly back to its beginning. The dazzling, snowy sand sifted through my bare toes. What curious shapes the wind had made with the sand! I was in a cozy state of daydreaming when I bumped my big toe on something hard. Ouch! Partly concealed in a shapeless mound was an object with hard metal corners. Using my hands to push aside the sand I uncovered a huge metal bound wooden chest. An enormous, rusty filth encrusted lock caught my fancy. Seizing a stone, I hammered the ancient lock. It was very well made but at last it gave way. I could scarcely contain my excitement as I pried the lid up. There in a corner, accompanied only by dead spiders was a moldy leather bound book. I took the book and opened it to the first page. Evidently it was a ship's log for the first was detailed account of the ship itself. It was built in 1945. Only the best labor and material were used in this craft. A haughty Viking's head fastened on the bow gave the ship its name. "It must have been a worthy craft," I thought as I turned the page. Here is one of the first entries:

"September seventh, in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Forty-five.

The ship has proved a worthy craft as these first rough trips have shown.

Today coming on foot, school buses, and coaxed by older sisters and brothers, green crews boarded the three sister ships Amboy, Rowe, and Monroe. They are all destined to meet later on the master ship the Viking."

The captains of these goodly vessels obviously nearly lost heart for the little rascals seemed inclined to disregard discipline and book learning in favor of roller skating, jump rope, and marbles.

The October tenth entry found the crew in an embarrassing situation.

"Today I, Captain Ferguson, stepped into the room to find all hands on board talking, hopping up and down, and wrestling. Since they are too inexperienced to understand that my entrance is the cue for settling down, banging my ruler on the desk only worsened the condition; for then much to everyone's surprise—and mine—the ruler broke. Stifled giggles broke into hysterical laughter as pandemonium reigned again. And their doting mothers had hoped for a good sea with few squalls!"

I read farther and found that in Nineteen Hundred and Forty-six writing was registered as a major accomplishment. Parrot like, the whole crew would mount one side then slide down the trunk of the hoary tree found in the Rowe school yard. The jolly tars delighted in the Christmas party and all the joy filled doings of their second year aboard ship.

Calm seas, heavy seas, squalls and heat seasoned the crews as I read about the third, fourth and fifth years. On the good ship Monroe, the feminine counterpart of its crew persisted in playing house complete with dolls and dishes in the tall weeds behind the school. These make-believe mothers hoarded the leftovers from their lunch for their unappreciative stuffed charges.

Entry for the sixth year:

"February, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-two. The sports minded members on board this ship, the Amboy, are directing all of their energies toward the boarding and sinking of the sleek Vikings. I hasten to add that it is all in friendly competition. The team to be first over the side consists of Joe Britcher, Clarence Johnson, and Victor Moisio. Cheering the raiders on are Nita Kuhn and June Walford."

Signed
Captain Miller

From information I read, the seventh winter found the remnants of both crews combined and enjoying their adventure aboard the Rowe. Captains Hutchinson and Snyder demanded respect although the crew was inclined to be prankish. Never to be forgotten were notes written in English, Finnish, code, and whatever means of communication availed itself at the time.

They were older but wisdom was slow in coming.

Captain Moseley introduced them to the ancient Greeks' heritage, drama. All hands will carry the scars from the rough and tumble basketball games between the boys and girls. Oh, how embarrassed they were repeating and acting out nursery rhymes. The iron hands in velvet gloves were wielded by Captain Edwards.

A splitting of their ways awaited the young salts of the ship Monroe. Captain Harry Fernandez steered the whole jolly crew to Cleveland, where their diet of salt pork was relieved by an excursion to an elegant restaurant. This was their eighth grade class trip.

And with this entry I found the first sections of the ships' logs coming to a close. The crews had proved their worth. Withstanding the weather they sailed to their second ship, united as one, working for their common goal.

"The hazing which was once standard procedure for greeting the new shipmates is exchanged for a dignified candlelight ceremony, impressing forever the meaning of Vitality, Integrity, Knowledge, Ingenuity, Nobility, Grace, and Sportsmanship.

The tars' representatives are President, Susan Parkomaki; Vice-President, Leonard Ceglie; Secretary, Gary Tuttle; and Treasurer, Norma Blood.

The accustoming of each with the complicated rigging on deck is accelerated by Captains Hopper and Ingersoll."

Captains Carlson and Klepek wrote this entry for the second year:

"The crew shoved off with a hearty Heave, ho! this year aboard the swift Viking. Chief mate, Frank Sanders; Second mate, Susan Parkomaki; Purser, Richard Nelson, and Yeoman, Barbara Paziorko were elected by the crew. Youthful jollity plays second hornpipe to the pursuit of that elusive nymph, Wisdom. Various devices are employed to extract pearls from oysters as the funds are increased."

"At last," wrote Captain Dawson as the final curtain rang down on "It's Great to be Crazy!" Ever to be remembered are the miscues, the laughter, clowning and the playing of card games backstage. Nancy Hopkins, Pat Mostello, Nita Kuhn, Leonard Ceglie, Susan Parkomaki, Gary Tuttle, Vonna Thompson, Victor Moisio, Kay Kirk, Bob Paziorko, Clarence Johnson, Lester Bennett, Kenna Mook, Carol Tuttle, and Nancy Blood made up the cast.

Barbara Paziorko and Susan Parkomaki were admitted to the National Honor Society in the Junior year.

The planning of the class officers President, Susan Parkomaki; Vice-president, Leonard Ceglie; Secretary, Barbara Paziorko; and Treasurer, Norma Blood was aimed at getting the prom started. Hustle, bustle, paint, noise, and the admonition of Captain Lynch to keep the theme secret, accompanied the juniors. Judy Dickson and Larry Simpson were crowned in an oriental paradise to the tune of a tinkly tea house with the Tea House of the August Moon as a fitting end to a wonderful journey.

"Already remorse settles a little in one corner of our memory as the final voyage of the Viking is made with this crew on board. The jolly crew had been first in many things. The first football team had Richard Nelson, Richard Lampi, Francis Thomas, Joe Specht, Clarence Johnson, Garv Evans, Bill Carlson, Robert Diasio, Daniel Szalai, Victor Moisio, and Leonard Ceglie as Seniors on it. Senior Class officers were President, Clarence Johnson; Vice-president, Barbara Paziorko: Secretary, S. Parkomaki; Treasurer, Barbara Paullin. The year slips by so swiftly. Invitations, cards, and caps and gowns have been ordered. The Senior play "Onions In the Stew" with Susan Parkomaki, Victor Moisio, Connie Leavers, Kay Kirk, Joe Specht, Richard Nelson, Gary Tuttle, Richard Towne, Judy Hunt, Janet Hicks, Nita Kuhn, Carol Tuttle, Joy Kesatie, Beckie Gray, Bonnie Law, John Bennett, Charles Stump, June Walford, Gary Evans, Brenda Mooney, Kenna Mook, Nancy Blood, Mary Baird, Francis Thomas was a huge success.

Barbara Paullin, and Daniel Szalai were new members to the National Honor Society. Joy Kesatie and Kenna Mook had cheered the rovers through their four years on board the Viking. Where to go for that brief excursion? It must be a perfect end to our high school years.

Farewell to all the brief ventures, the hi-jinks on the high seas, with this sturdy vessel. We set out on a larger sea that encompasses our whole life. A firm foundation has been laid by our senior advisors, Captains Kitchen and Weir."

The sun was setting when I finally finished reading the log. I called to a boy who was wandering along the beach to help me carry the chest and log back to the hotel. I had really found a treasure for the log would remind me of days long past.

WHAT THE BRAVES DID NOT TAKE

WE THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1958, BEING OF SOUND MIND (?) AND BODY DO HEREBY BEQUEATH ALL OF OUR WORLDLY POSSESSIONS TO THE JUNIOR CLASS OF 1958. THEY ARE AS FOLLOWS:

I, Joe Specht, do hereby bequeath to Tim Shellito my way with the teachers; it comes in handy to soothe them when they get angry.

To Barbara Goodiel and Goldie Bateman I, Mary Baird, will my quiet manner. Remember, a soft answer turneth away anger.

I, Richard Cole, will to William Towne and Richard Mook, my skill at football on my private field in my backyard. If the games get to rough, don't get angry; just fight that much harder.

I, Francis Thomas, will to William Clark my amazing speed. Don't use it to run away from a fight, but use it to pursue the girls.

To June Nutter I, Janet Hicks, bequeath my famous walk. Remind me to teach it to you sometime.

I, John Bennett, will my three-toned Ford to Charles Schiavone. At least, people will see you coming!

To Tom Bosick and Russell Hall I, Gary Evans, leave my love for the great outdoors and hunting; it comes in very handy in bringing home the bacon.

I, James Denning, will to Al Clemson my secret of making almost any explosive. Just wait till I'm gone before you blow up the lab.

To John Holcomb I, Lance Kelly, do leave some of my height. I give you my permission to show no mercy to anyone who asks you about the "weather up there."

I, Dick Towne, will my place in the drivers' training car to Susan Lawrence. Don't scrape any fenders backing out of the bus garage.

We, Nancy Blood and Vonna Thompson, knowing they will need it very much, bequeath our speed in shorthand to Pat Hagerty and Lida Huston.

I, Barbara Kasto, give to Karen Hoskins my amazing powers of concentration on studies, not on boys.

I, Bill Carlson, do bequeath to Gary Andes some of my skill at baseball. But first, make the team.

To Dorma Cole I, Carol Tuttle, will my place as Miss Weir's right hand helper. It's a lot of fun, and then too you always learn something.

I, Charles Stump, will to Larry LaBounty my record of being absent from study halls on "very important business."

We, the charter members of the National Bachelors' Society, David Baldwin, Joe Britcher, and Charles Laird, will our unused marriage license applications to Ronnie Ebersole, Roger Hogle and Norman Champlin.

I, Duane Anderson, do hereby leave to Casper Portzer my enviable tan. I get it from so many vacations in Florida, you know.

I, Marie Passmore, will to Sandra Georgia my winning grin. You would be surprised how many friends you can make.

I, Clarence Johnson, will to Willis Bennett my bottle of "cough medicine" kept behind numerous crates and boxes at Pop's Gas Station.

I, Frances Rudler, will to Millie Mix my seat in Health class. Just how healthful it will prove, I don't know.

I, Joy Kesatie, will my ability to get along with all the boys to Agnes Laituri. It's to your advantage when the male of the species become scarce.

To Patricia Juhasz I, Patti Mostello, bequeath my ability to be friendly to everyone. You'll find the best results from the masculine gender.

I, Donald Hogle, will to Dick Nutter all my assorted moth-eaten and mangy coon hides from various hunting expeditions. You will make a mint if Davy Crockett makes a comeback.

TO THE HAPPY HUNTING GROUNDS

I, George White, will to Dave Wheeler my nick name "Stigmotical Fuzzy Frog." It comes in handy when you don't care to reveal your name to strange girls.

To Willard Colver and Jim Kuhn I, Harry Seibert, do hereby will my razor with which I cut off my luxuriant sideburns. You may have the sideburns too if you want them.

I, Gary Tuttle, will to Chuck Roberts and Larry Tuttle my ability to get a date at any given moment. If you have a car and money, don't worry about refusals.

To Dian Nesbitt I, Rita Kuhn, will my year 'round supply of sweaters. They may keep you warm too.

I, Barbara Paullin, will to Charlotte Hughes my X-ray vision, which I used to look into the future when I wrote the class prophecy.

I, Bonita Law, will to Nancy Schlaich some of my treasured diminitive size. When you are hiding from the teachers in the halls between classes, they will always overlook you.

To Harry Fails I, Leonard Ceglie, will my ability to out talk anybody in R. H. S. People can't argue with you if you're talking so fast they don't understand what you are saying.

I, William Bacon, will to William Miller and Bob Myers my sense of humor. Remember that it is the light side of life that is the best.

I, Robert Diasio, will to Roland Huston my fireman's badge. It makes a handy excuse for dashing out of class.

I, Victor Moisio, will to Ronnie Hicks my theme song, "Oh, how I hate to get up in the morning!"

We, Kay Kirk and Brenda Mooney, will to Shirley Loomis and Betty Rosaa our ability to carry on such friendly rivalry with Conneaut High.

To Kathy Specht I, Connie Leavers, will my irresistable, impish ways. They may get you into trouble but you surely will have loads of fun.

I, Nita Kuhn, will to Barbara Vorse my stateliness. Remember, a tall, sleek look makes a clean sweep of the stag line.

To William Braden I, Fred Baird, will my beloved "hotrod." I'll also leave some string in case a part falls off here and there.

I, Becky Gray, will to Judy Nelson my amazing ability to quietly wrap boys around my finger. The trouble is they don't quite fit.

I, Dick Nelson, will to Dan Cantlin my scarlet blush. At least everyone knows whether you think his joke is funny.

I, Joan Reed, will to Alice Kesatie and Karen Nelson my happy-go-lucky way. It not only pleases everybody else, but you will also enjoy life.

To Albina James and Janet Kobernik I, June Walford, will my ability to laugh at anything. Some of the results are amazing???

To Joyce Bacon I, Susan Parkomaki, do bequeath my combination French, Latin, and Finnish dialect. Remember, if you don't know what your saying, neither does anyone else.

I, Richard Lampi, will to Jack Redding my pack of Luckies hidden in the coach's office. However, don't try to get any while the coach is there.

To Jim Strong I, Dan Szalai, give my attractive combination of red and black hair. It doesn't look too startling at a distance.

I, Kenna Mook, will to Linda Mook my place as cheerleader. Besides getting into all of the games free, you have bushels of fun.

PROPHECY OF THE BRAVES

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen. This is your announcer BARBARA PAULLIN introducing another famous Home Folks show. As you well know, there are only a few hours left in the year 1978; as a special New Year's Eve show we have brought to our studio the 1958 Class of Rowe High School from Conneaut, Ohio. This may mean nothing to many of you out there in television land, but our emcee of the Home Folks show was a member of this famous class. Here he comes now, folks! MR. LEONARD CEGLIE.

"Hello, everybody, the show coming up tonight is one near and dear to my heart. So instead of introducing our guests myself, I will have my announcer do the whole show. But first a word from our sponsors.

"For your New Year's Eve Party tonight, food is a big factor and I hope everybody bought plenty of Crunchy Munchy potato chips. Imagine those thin slices of potatoes dumped into big vats of hot greasy fat to come out crisp, crunchy and greasy! And now back to the Home Folks Show.

"I'll introduce each person now and then we'll talk to them after we greet the New Year at midnight. First, the famous Allen and Sullivan of today RICHARD LAMPI and GARY TUTTLE. These boys took over the competing Sunday evening shows on different channels. Both have highly rated programs.

"Next on the agenda are our three glamorous actresses PAT MOSTELLO, NITA KUHN, and CONNIE LEAVERS. And we mustn't forget NITA'S poodle which has become a trademark to the three girls, who are now as famous as the Garbor sisters of twenty years ago."

"Now tripping out on our stage comes the funniest comedian ever to hit television. When I say tripping, I mean it, for CHARLIE STUMP always stumbles into his act.

"A little fanfare from the orchestra now as three bearded men walk out to the microphone: DANNY SZALAI, BOB DIASIO, and DICK NELSON. They recently took a trip to the moon and came back in a hurry. The explanation is in their book A Trip to the Moon in More Days than We Could Count on Our Fingers and Toes. May we quote this inspired passage, "We came back from the moon because it's made of green cheese; and if there's anything we hate, it's green cheese.

"The fashion dictator of the world comes parading in with her cohorts and her top models. As they draw closer to the camera, we recognize SUSAN PARKOMAKI, with BARBARA PAZIORKO and NANCY BLOOD and her models MARIE PASSMORE, JOY KESATIE, and BECKY GRAY. Since SUSAN'S rise in fame, skirts have stayed at a twelve inch height and haven't hovered above and below the knee each year as they had back in the Nineteen fifties.

"One of the busiest men in the U. S. at this time is the atomic scientist standing beside me, JIM DENNING.

He and a few other fellow scientists VICTOR MOISIO, JOHN BENNETT, JOE BRITCHER, and JOE SPECHT are engaged in finding a way to get the latest U. S. Statesnik out of the sky. For after it was launched, someone discovered one of the workers, FRANCIS THOMAS, had been left inside. Poor FRANCIS! A modern day Mannik like the Muttnik of 1957!

PROPHECY OF THE BRAVES

"Now come the smartly uniformed secret police guarding our President. Officers WILLIAM BACON and DUANE ANDERSON look very tough and imposing as they escort our President to the microphone. President CLARENCE JOHNSON and the first lady KENNA MOOK bring with them Secretary of State NORMA BLOOD, who is the first woman to be appointed Secretary of State.

"Rhythm and Blues singers JUDY HUNT and LESTER BENNETT dash out on the stage now amidst the roars and screams of todays' teenagers. Their latest hit song is 'Charlie was a Boxer! So What Does That Make George?' JUDY and LES will sing their song later in the evening; so quiet down now, kids.

"Here we have the famous star of the new Lone Ranger series, LANCE KELLEY and his faithful Indian scout GARY EVANS. The only actors missing now are Silver and Scout who are undoubtedly out riding the range.

"The Betty Crocker of today is standing before our camera now. It's JOAN READ with two of her assistants, CAROL TUTTLE and BONNIE LAW. CAROL and BONNIE have to taste all the recipes JOAN invents. Lucky girls, for JOAN'S recipes are out of this world.

"I see all feminine eyes turning toward our next visitors, MISS KAY KIRK and her flying glamor girls BRENDA MOONEY, and RITA KUHN. These girls operate the Sissy Flying School and Airport in New York. Later in the show Kay will give you ladies some pointers on what to wear while flying.

"Next is BARBARA KASTO, author and Pulitzer-prize-winner for her book It's a Great Life if You Don't Weaken.

"Police-chief RICHARD COLE is coming in now! Being police-chief of New York City is no easy task, and to protect himself RICHARD has brought two body guards FRED BAIRD and DAVID BALDWIN. Also in the party is Mayor HARRY SEIBERT from Conneaut, Ohio, who is another member of this famous class of 1958.

"Ocean swimmer VONNA THOMPSON steps into the camera range now. Recently VONNA swam from New York to London—nonstop, of course. When asked how she accomplished this feat, Vonna replied, "I swam!"

"Now some of my favorite people are coming through the door JANET HICKS, JUNE WALFORD, MARY BAIRD, and FRANCES RUDLER. They opened the Risky Restaurant on Fifth Avenue where the specialty is Big Girls, named after those famous Big Boy hamburgers of long ago.

"Cattle baron, DON HOGLE is taking his bow! DON with the help of his ranchhands DICK TOWNE, GEORGE WHITE, CHUCK LAIRD, and BILL CARLSON is still trying to make brown cows produce chocolate milk."

"And now, folks, I see it's nearly midnight, so raise your horns and welcome 1979 as we sing Old Lang Syne."

That noise becomes deafening when one persistant ring penetrates my consciousness. It's my alarm clock! Ho, hum! Time to get up and leave my beautiful dream of the future. Today is graduation day and, though my classmates may never be famous in reality, in dreams they can reach the top.

ONIONS IN THE STEW

By Betty MacDonald

A rolicking true-to-life comedy about the MacDonald family, which included Betty, Don, and their two teenage daughters, Joan and Anne . . . The whole story began when the family moved to a home on an island . . . The inconveniences of island life were amusing when handled by the MacDonald's city ideas . . . The snow storm and the weekend when everyone invited his own guests, were highlights in this human comedy . . .

Early and long rehearsals . . . Trying to get lines learned by curtain time . . . 8:00 Thursday, April 17 . . . Nearly freezing to death in the cold gym . . . However, pioneer spirit came through . . . Play a huge success . . . With many thanks to our director, Miss Hazel Mosely.

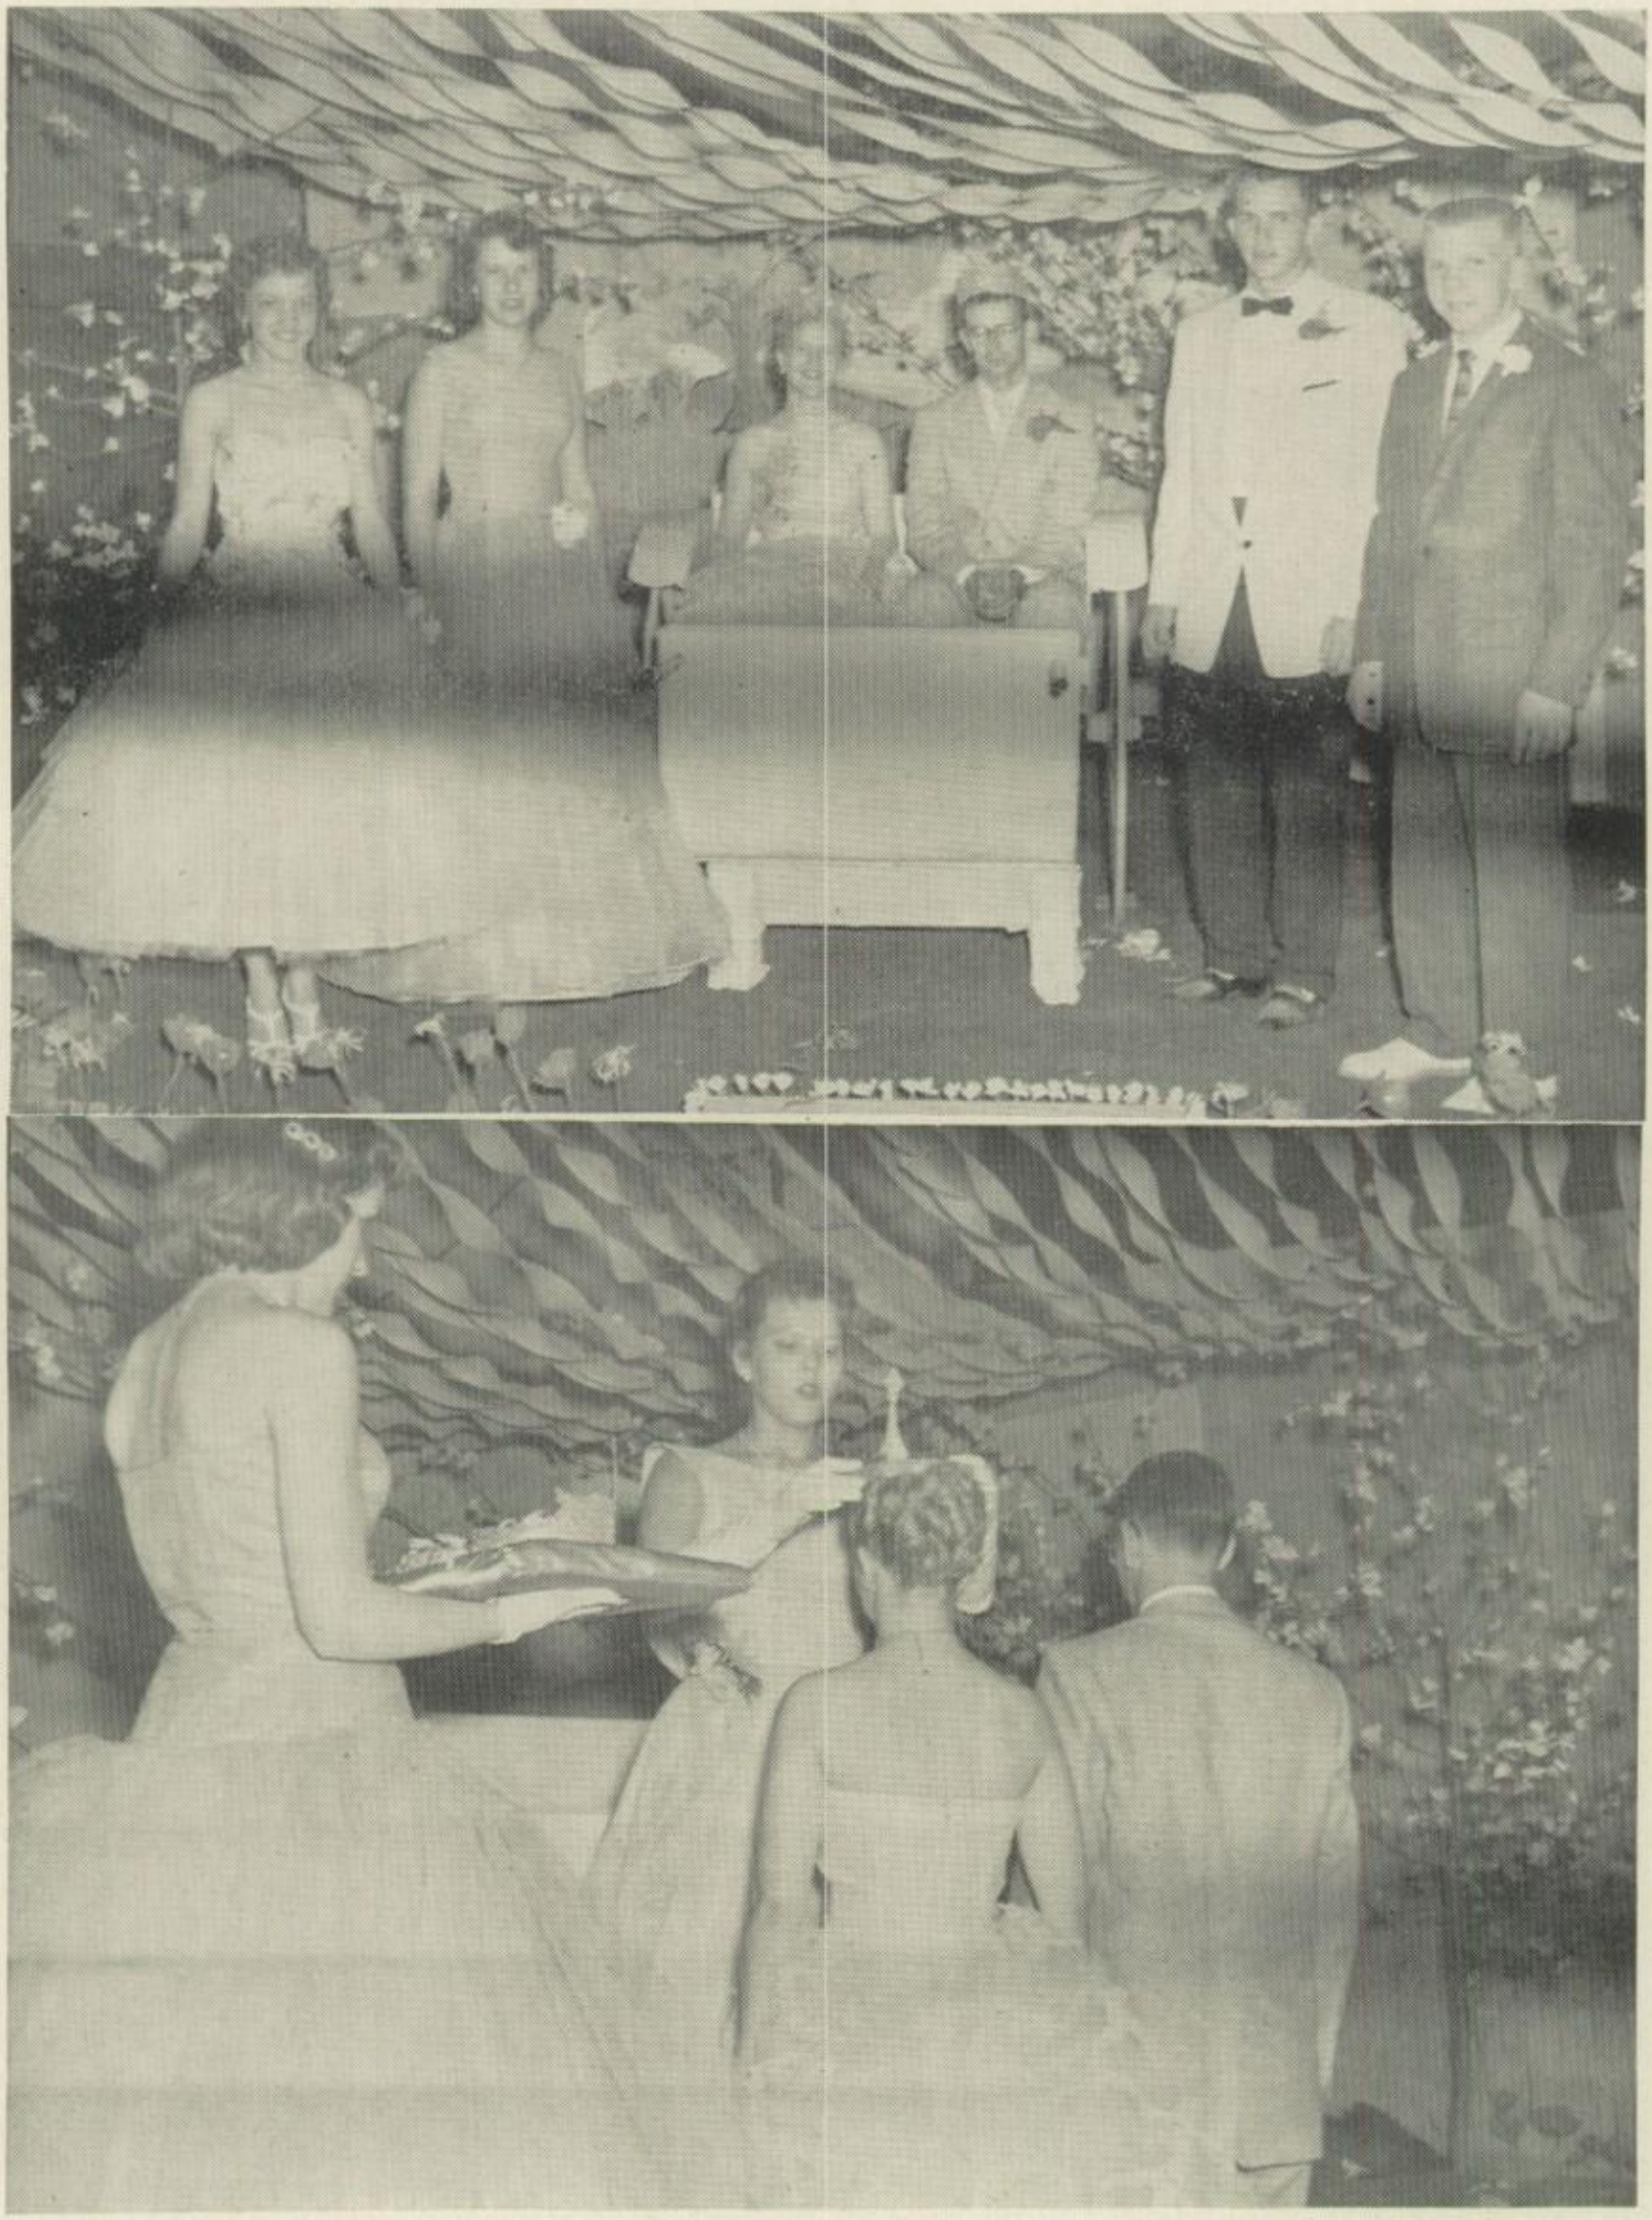
THE BRAVES AND THEIR DESCENDANTS WHOOP IT UP!



THE BRAVES AND THEIR DESCENDANTS WHOOP IT UP!

Lovely ladies and kind gentlemen, happiness awaited you in the Teahouse of the August Moon. . . . This was the theme of the annual Junior-Senior Prom on Saturday, May 11, 1957. . . . The evening began at 6:30 with a banquet of creamed chicken on mashed potatoes, peas, and jello salad, with chocolate cake and ice cream. . . . Then Leonard Ceglie, as master of ceremonies, led the excited juniors and seniors in singing. . . . Then the dance programs were filled out. . . . Excitement mounted as the gym was opened to reveal the wonder of old Japan. . . . Guests walked through the dragon's mouth into a world of floating paper, butterflies and tinkling wind chimes. . . . Dancing to the music of Ray Jangles fine orchestra which was performing under a miniature teahouse beside a brook with a quaint old bridge over it. . . . Juniors: Kenna Mook, Dan Szalai, Joy Kesatie, Clarence Johnson, led the seniors of the court over this bridge to the throne, a Japanese ricksha on a hill surrounded by cherry trees in blossom. . . . Judy Dickson and Larry Simpson were crowned by Junior Class President Susan Parkomaki after which Judy Hunt, escorted by Victor Moisio, sang "My Best to You" . . . Then the King and Queen with their court: Larry Beers, Aris Anderson, Dale Webb, Barbara Hale reigned over the final dance ending a perfect prom evening.

FRESHMEN: We entered this new world of high school with great anticipation . . . Freshman Induction . . . Freshman-Sophomore Dance . . . A gay Christmas Party and a snowy vacation and Holiday fun . . . Exams and finally report cards . . . Our thanks to Mrs. Ingersoll and Mr. Hopper, our sponsors.

SOPHOMORES: Our main interest was earning money . . . Co-sponsored Freshman-Sophomore Dance . . . Well represented in sports . . . Our gratitude to Miss Tobin and Mr. Carlson.

JUNIORS: A very exciting year . . . Admiring our shiny new class rings. . . . Work on our class play "Jumpin' Jupiter" in which three Broadway hopefuls became involved in a kidnaping and found $50,000 ransom money . . . In trying to dispose of the "hot money" they stumbled upon the solution to more than one mysterious incident . . . Carefully guarded plans for a gala prom . . . Fun-filled hours of work and worry . . . Then the big night in a world of beauty and make-believe . . . Gala Coketail party and dreamy dance with the coronation of King Viking and Queen Christina climaxing a night to be remembered . . . Representation in cheerleading by Linda Mook . . . On Student Council by Harry Fails, Betty Rosaa, and Karen Hoskins . . . After 20 years our first football team with Junior membership of Jack Redding, James Schiavone, Charles Schiavone, Russ Hall, Chuck Roberts, Tom Bosick, Jim Strong, Norman Champlin, Larry LaBounty, Tim Shellito, and Willard Colver . . . In Varsity Basketball Russell Hall, Chuck Roberts, Harry Fails, Tim Shellito and Jim Strong . . . Initiated into the National Honor Society were Karen Hoskins, Dorma Cole, Joyce Bacon . . . And so another year was brought to a close but we will always remember Mrs. Lynch and Mr. Dawson.

Homecoming . . . Parent's Night . . . Tournament . . . They were all a part of Rowe's basketball season . . . Only three Seniors were on the Varsity squad: Clarence Johnson, John Bennett and Leonard Ceglie . . . The other members of the starting line-up were Juniors: Tim Shellito, Harry Fails, Jim Strong and Chuck Roberts . . . . Mr. Humphrey did an excellent job of coaching the Viking squad to its many victories this year . . . Next year he is looking forward to another good season with four Junior lettermen returning . . .

ROW TWO—John Black, Richard Mook, Dennis Somppi, Jeff Capela, Robert Hogle.

ROW TWO—Roy Pratt, Jim Fralic, Dave Hicks, Coach Ladner, Dave Dietz, Bill Porter, Ron Schor, Gene Walford.

This is the second year for the Freshman League . . . They are holding their own, playing against class AA schools, against taller teams . . . Trying to equal last year's record . . . Jack Bennett promises to be the key man in scoring . . . Under the direction of coach Ladner they played Geneva, Ashtabula, Ashtabula Harbor, Conneaut, and Ashtabula St. John's in addition to the invitational tournament at Conneaut in February.

BASEBALL

Skilled in all youthful sports.

ROW ONE—Bill Kessler, Richard Lampi, Leonard Ceglie, Dan Szalai, Bill Carlson, Tom Bosick.

ROW TWO—Richard Kangas, Jim Strong, Harry Fails, Willis Bennett, Russ Hall, Ken Kantola.

ROW THREE—Mr. Humphrey (coach), Bob Diasio, Robert Hogle, Sam Evans, Richard Diasio, Doug Hunter, Ronald Sundstrom.

Due to the first football season in Rowe's history, the hard-hitting Vikings did not compete in baseball last fall — Harry Fails, Clarence Johnson, Leonard Ceglie, Bill Carlson, Danny Szalai, Jim Strong, and Tom Bosick returning lettermen, assure Rowe of a winning team and a possible trip to the state tournament this spring.

TRACK

None could run so fast as he could!

ROW ONE—Richard Mook, James Schiavone, Charles Schiavone, Mr. Klepek (coach), Russ Hall, Ronald Sundstrom, Ronald Huston.

ROW FOUR—John Clegg, Richard Lampi, Robert Hogle, Henry Jackson, Bill Carlson, Willis Bennett.

The crack of the starter's gun sounds and the runners are off . . . Fighting for the best position . . . Once around the track . . . The leader starts pulling away . . . A man drops out . . . They near the end . . . They kick . . . The winner breaks the tape . . . The runner then falls into the arms of the manager . . . The race is over!

Returning lettermen who are running the mile relay are Harry Fails, Russ Hall, Len Ceglie and newcomer to the track team, Richard Mook . . . The team also boasts two other veterans; Bill Clark—distances and Jim Schiavone—dashes . . . For their first year on the team are sophomores Chris Longaker—hurdles and broad jump; Richard Diasio—dashes and relays; Bob Sprague—pole vault; Jay Fralic — weights and hurdles; Foster Gibson—weights . . . Coach Klepek plans to have meets with Grand Valley, Austinburg, Andover, Conneaut, Edgewood, and Jefferson in addition to the League and County meets . . . Track is improving here at Rowe and this year may provide a few surprises.

Because last year's annual went to press before the wind up of last season's track events were completed here is a summary of what took place. . . . Paced by Beers, Horwood, Fails, Ring, and Kobernik, Rowe captured fourth in the county meet and second in the league . . . In the county meet Larry Beers took first in discus by a distance of 128 feet which is considered very good . . . He also placed second in the 180 yard low hurdles . . . In league action Jim Horwood copped second place in high hurdles . . . Milt Ring placed second in the broad jump. . . .

FOOTBALL CHEERLEADERS

New sounds, new words this year . . . Instead of the usual cheers like "Baskets" . . . We heard new cheers like "End, Center, Tackle, Guard" . . . Eight cheerleaders wearing blue bermuda shorts and gold sweat shirts . . . Always smiling, always full of pep even on the coldest Saturday afternoons . . . Practicing every Tuesday and Thursday . . . That cheering at night over at the Conneaut stadium under the lights . . . "Victory" never sounded better than at that game . . . The cheerleaders elected for the season were Joy Kesatie, Kenna Mook, Judy Yarington, Brenda Smith, Stephanie Clark, Maxine Hazen, Linda Mook, and Linda Reets . . .

Fight, team, fight! was the cry of the freshman cheerleaders headed by Carol Litwiler, cheering for her first year . . . Also cheering for their first year were Pauline Benton and Joyce Champlin . . . Cheering for three years were Mary Heil, Jane Mook, and Shirley Evans who also cheered for two years in junior high.

The girls, decked out in their pert blue and gold uniforms, did a fine job. Good luck in future years!

SENIOR CHEERLEADERS

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADERS

Practice . . . Practice . . . Practice . . . The word of our cheerleaders this year . . . How are our outfits coming, Mrs. Ingersoll? . . . Fittings again and again . . . Darts to be taken in and let out . . . Finally the finished costumes . . . For the reserve cheerleaders royal blue corduroy empire dresses with gold taffeta collars and cuffs . . . The varsity had something new this year in white corduroy empire dresses also with gold taffeta collars and cuffs . . . New motions and new cheers . . . New practice schedules . . . Hurry . . . Hurry . . Hurry . . . Ready as usual for a dramatic first appearance at the Grand Valley preview game and at our first home game with Kingsville . . . The season exciting and enjoyable . . . The cheerleaders elected by the students, Joy Kesatie, Kenna Mook, Brenda Smith, Judy Yarington, Linda Mook, Stephanie Clark, Maxine Hazen and Linda Reets . . .

SENIOR HIGH CHEERLEADERS

Jumping up and down . . . Cheering our team to victory . . . Our eight cheerleaders chosen by the student body . . . Captain for the Varsity squad was Senior Joy Kesatie in her fourth year of cheering . . . Another Senior cheering her fourth year was Kenna Mook . . . The Sophomores had two representatives on the Varsity squad for their first year in high school cheering: Brenda Smith and Judy Yarington . . . Heading the reserve squad from the Sophomore class was Stephanie Clark in her first year for high school cheering . . . Sophomores Maxine Hazen and Linda Reets also served their first year for high school . . . One representative from the Junior class serving her second year was Linda Mook.

Both cheerleading squads deserve a big cheer, for both did a wonderful job in keeping up that good old Viking spirit.

STUDENT COUNCIL

President ..... Leonard Ceglie
Vice President ..... Susan Parkomaki
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Karen Hoskins
Sponsors ..... Mr. Howard Hopper, Mr. Ben Klepek

The Student Council was formed at Rowe in 1942 to promote co-ordination between the various classes . . . This year new duties and responsibilities were assumed . . . Enforcing and interpreting the Rowe Code of Ethics is only one of these duties . . . This code was composed by a committee of ten students, four parents, and two teachers . . . The purpose of this code is to improve future citizens of our community and to raise the standards of Rowe High in all activities: Scholarship, Leadership, Sportsmanship, Citizenship, Social Activities, and Behavior . . . Student Council setting up penalties for those who willfully disobey the Rowe Code . . . Boys and girls both looking their best . . . Accepting candidates for cheerleading and arranging an assembly for tryouts . . . Making ballots and counting votes . . . Announcing winners . . . Making a new Student Council Constitution . . .
